

Workforce Development Sustainability Conference
Provisional Programme

Thursday 7 September 2006	Time
Registration	8.00am - 9.00am	Registration
Opening Session	9.00am	Powhiri	Welcome to the Minister and guests
	9.15am	Introduction to Conference	"What do we mean by DHB sustainability? Challenges and opportunities in the current environment." Pat Snedden, Chairman CMDHB
	9.30am	Keynote Opening Speech	"What will our future workforce look like? Sustainability from a national perspective" Hon Pete Hodgson, Minister of Health
	10.00am	MC	Agenda for the day Dr Don Mackie, Chief Medical Officer, CMDHB
Morning Tea Break	10.00 am
Session 1: Future trends	10.30am	Keynote Speaker	"What are the key trends in health workforce development globally? The health professional of the future – specialist or generalist?" Professor Des Gorman, Head of School of Medicine, Auckland University Medical School
	11.00am		Question and answer time, comments
	11.15am	Presentations	"How population health needs should drive workforce demand" Dr Allan Moffitt, Director, Primary Care Development, CMDHB
	11.30am		"Health System Pressures on Workforce Development - Why we must change" Professor Iain Martin, Dean, Faculty of Medicine, University of Auckland
	11.45am		Question and answer time, comments
Lunch Break	12.00am		Entertainment - Te Kura Kaupapa O Mangere
Session 2: Changing consumer and community expectations - towards a responsive health workforce	12.45am		Chair: Dr Peter Gow, Chairman Clinical Board, CMDHB
	12.50pm	Keynote Speaker	"Consumer expectation and how to respond" Rae Lamb, Deputy Health & Disability Commissioner
	1.20pm	Presentations	"Community Engagement" Pat Snedden, Chairman CMDHB

	1.45pm	Panel discussion	Reflections on individual and community responsibility to grow and support workforce development
Afternoon Tea Break	2.15pm
Session 3: Why should I join the health sector? – Youth perspectives	2.45pm	Presentation	"It's institutions that need to change, not just young people – supporting young people into health careers" Ngaire Ashborne, Principal, Tangaroa College
Session 4: Innovations in Workforce Development	3.10pm	Keynote Speaker	"Getting the best out of a non clinical workforce - caring for older people" Dr Matthew Parsons PhD, Senior Lecturer in Gerontology, Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland
	3.40pm	Presentations	"Thinking Outside the Square: the role of the non-professional in achieving health gain" Sue Hallwright, Director, Mental Health Development, CMDHB
	3.55pm		"MAPAS is an opportunity for young Maori and Pacific people to enter the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences and pursue a career in health" Elena Curtis, MAPAS
	4.10pm		"Integrating Primary Care into Nursing Curriculums" Dale Oliff, Director of Nursing, CMDHB
	4.25pm	Panel discussion	Growing a new workforce - Models of Education and Health sector partnerships in Workforce Development
Closing Session	4.40pm	Plenary
	4.55pm	Closing karakia
Commonwealth Bank and ASB Cocktails and Nibbles	5.00pm - 6.30pm		Cultural performance by 'Pacific Expressions' during cocktail evening

Friday 8 September	Time
Opening	9.00am	Welcome	Reflections and overview of the day Dr Don Mackie, Chief Medical Officer, CMDHB
Session 5: National Progress in Workforce Planning & Development	9.15am	Keynote Speaker	"Opportunities for national co-ordination in workforce development – a DHBNZ Workforce Development Group perspective" Dr Dwayne Crombie, Chair, Workforce Development Group DHBNZ, CEO, Waitemata District Health Board
	9.45am	Presentations	Progress on Workforce Strategies: Speaker, Jim Green, Tairāwhiti DHB Chief Executive - Nursing/Midwifery

			Progress on Workforce Strategies: Speaker, Lorraine Eade, Portfolio Manager for Mental Health and Acting Portfolio Manager for Maori Health, Nelson Marlborough DHB - Non-regulated Progress on Workforce Strategies: Dr Nigel Murray, Interim Chief Executive Officer, Southland DHB - Medical
Morning Tea Break	10.30am
Session 6: Workforce Development in Primary Care	11.00am	Panel and Interactive Discussion	Question and answer time, comments
	11.30am	Keynote Speaker	"Primary care, a burning platform - why change is inevitable" Dr Jim Primrose, Primary Care, Chief Advisor in General Practice, Ministry of Health
Lunch Break	12.00pm		Entertainment - Marlena Devoe
	12.45pm	Presentations	To be confirmed
	1.05pm		"If we don't do it ourselves no one will do it drivers of change" Dr Sitaleki Finau, Director, Centre for Pacific Health Research, Massey University
	1.25pm		"Against the odds - establishing a Bachelor of Pacific Nursing" Margaret Southwick, Director, Pacific Health Research Centre, Whitireia Community Polytechnic
	1.45pm	Panel discussion	Panel and Interactive Discussion
Afternoon Tea Break	2.00pm
Session 7: The Way Forward	2.30pm	Debate	Chair: Dr Peter Gow, Chairman Clinical Board, CMDHB What do we need doctors for - we have the internet, nurse practitioners and Oprah? Willie Jackson, CEO Radio Waatea, Mr Andrew Connolly, Head of Department General Surgery, Middlemore Hospital, Dr Sitaleki Finau, Director, Centre for Pacific Health Research, Massey University and David Galler, Clinical Director Acute Care, Middlemore Hospital
	3.30pm	Plenary Session	Closing reflections, Professor Des Gorman, Head of School of Medicine, Auckland University Medical School
	3.45pm		Question and answer time, comments
Close	4.00pm	Karakia	